Behaviour expectations

Code of conduct:

Brooklands Academy is a centre of learning. Values of excellence and scholarship blend with innovation in learning styles. The fun and fundamentals of learning matter.

Every member of the Brooklands community has the right to attend classes, take part in activities and to carry out their duties without being hindered by any other person or group. There are no innocent bystanders when learning is being disrupted or someone is being hurt or belittled by others.

Social media and phone policy

- Phones will be allowed, but remain the responsibility of the student.
- They are personal devices and as such students will be required to bring appropriate headphones for when they are used.
- Students will be expected to not use headphones or phones except for pictures while visiting sites during the day.
- No photographs should be uploaded to social media.
- Phones will be collected at 9pm each evening and reissued at breakfast the following day.

Brooklands Academy takes no responsibility for loss or damage to personal devices, nor for roaming charges incurred.

Communication

- Students will be issued with a contact card of key information they may need if they get separated from the group.
- If parents have concerns or worries, please contact the party leader on the contact number provided.
- Once we have arrived back in the UK we will ask the school to send you a message with an estimated time of arrival back.

Thank you for attending.
